

Bring and Buy Stall structure and rules

Fill in the details of your item(s) on your sheet and we will attach a raffle ticket to each item and give you the other half. You'll need this for picking up your money and reclaiming unsold stuff.

10% will be deducted from the sale price and donated to our chosen charity.

Sheets cost £1 each to submit, no more than 2 per person.

Non-collection of money will be taken to mean that the seller wants all the money to be donated to our chosen charity.

Non-collected items will become the property of the Bring and Buy Coordinators and will be donated to a future Bring and Buy stall/set fire to/sold to Das Shoppe for further donations to charity.

No refunds or returns on items as they are bought and sold as seen.

Goods should be in good order. In exceptional circumstances, damaged goods will be accepted. In this case goods should be marked with what parts are damaged.

We, the Bring n Buy organisers...

- will do our best for security but hold no responsibility for lost or stolen items, everything is left at the owner's risk
- will not pay out or allowed goods to be collected unless the collector has retained their half of the raffle ticket, thus proving ownership
- cannot give people advice on prices
- have taken sellers at their word that items are in good order (unless marked) and are not held responsible if they are not.
- will begin paying out at the time agreed and not before, unless circumstances are exceptional.
- may refuse any Bring and Buy item(s) they deem unfit, or if they believe the item(s) belong to a 3rd party.

We may use your details to contact you about future events. If you do not want us to do this, check the box on the form.

Optional rule

- At the discretion of the Bring and Buy stall staff, "Haggling" over the price of an item (within a percentage stated by the seller on the form) can take place if the agreement box on the form is clearly marked "Yes".

The Sellers...

- must know what they wish to sell for (i.e. the price) and should not ask for advice from the organisers.
- must retain their half of the ticket(s) given to them.
- will collect their cash and/or unsold items at the times specified.
- when collecting unsold items) must not take them off the table without informing the organisers and having them checked off against the logbook.
- Items and/or cash cannot be collected without the raffle ticket(s) being retained.
- must accept that whilst all is done to prevent loss the organisers are not responsible for any losses, thefts or damages etc. - all items are left at their owner's risk and sellers may only sell items which they own.
